Champagne Velvet is "The Balanced Brew." It's balanced for taste . . . its appealing, wine-like character blends, mellows and heightens its bouquet. And it's balanced for effect . . . in addition to pure water and yeast, just the right proportion of choice hops and selected grain (and nothing else) makes its effect only healthfully exhilarating. That's why people say "There's no 'A. E.' in C. V."

POWERS AND DUTIES

The powers and duties of a county as a body politic and corporate shall be exercised by a Board of County Commissioners, to consist of three qualified electors, any two of whom shall be competent to transact business, and such board may prosecute and defend suits and have all other duties, rights and powers incident to corporations.

The commissioners are elected for a term of three years rotating so that there is one odd member on the board at all times. There are three districts in the county, and while the commissioners are elected by all voters of the county, each one must reside in one of these districts.

1st. To make orders respecting the property of the county in conformity to law, to buy or sell public grounds of the county, also buildings, etc.; to have care and custody of same.

2nd. To allow all accounts chargeable against the county, not otherwise provided for; and to direct the raising of such sums as may be necessary to defray all county expenses.

3rd. To purchase materials and supplies of any and every sort which are to be paid for out of the county treasury, same to be contracted for by sealed bids.

4th. To appropriate funds to aid in the construction and repair of roads and bridges in any part of the county.

5th. To perform all other duties that may be enjoined on them by any law of this state.

The Board of County Commissioners shall have open meetings at their office and all persons desiring to attend may do so.

All claims filed against the county with the county Auditor, are submitted to the board for approval or rejection.

Under the statutes the board of commissioners shall approve or disapprove old age pensions.

BRIEF DUTIES

The County Treasurer before he enters upon the duties of his office shall execute a satisfactory bond to the County Board, which bond shall be fixed by the County Clerk, on or before the first of January, thirteen months after election.

The County Treasurer shall receive and safely keep the revenues and other public monies of the county, and all money and funds authorized by law to be paid to him, and disburse the same pursuant to law.

The County Treasurer shall keep proper books of accounts in which he shall keep a regular, just and true account of all monies, revenues and funds paid out by him agreeable to law. Said books shall be free to the inspection of all persons wishing to examine the same.

When any county order is presented to him and examined, the County Treasurer shall personally countersign the same, keeping record of same in a book for that purpose, giving complete information, and when such order is paid he shall cancel and note the fact opposite such entry.

He is responsible for the acts of his deputies.

The County Treasurer collects all taxes on real and personal property for the city, county and state. The County Treasurer is also custodian of police, firemen and municipal utility pension funds. The County Treasurer also sells all intangible tax stamps; is also custodian of all receipts of municipal utilities, of all monies taken in by the city, water and light departments. In cities of this class he also acts as City Treasurer.

C. R. VAN ARSDALL CORONER
JOHN O. GARRIGUS DEPUTY

BRIEF DUTIES

The duties of the Coroner are:

To take charge of the body of anyone dying, where there was no medical doctor in attendance, undue means, murders, accidental deaths, etc.

As soon as notified of the death of anyone from any of these causes, it is the duty of the Coroner to proceed to investigate, and find out, if possible, the exact cause of death. If the death is of any criminal nature he is supposed to take into his custody the person or persons responsible for same, in all cases the Coroner makes an investigation by himself, renders a verdict on the death. The Coroner is also a police officer and has the same powers of the Sheriff of the county in which he is Coroner.

In cases where the Sheriff or his family is invalid, it is the duties of the Coroner to be the Sheriff in such cases, such as making arrests and serving papers of the different courts.
